ACADIA SQUADRON LEADER

Champion bull in the 1951 sale. Owned and sold by Acadia Farms, Northfield, Ohio. Purchased for $1050.00 by L. C. Nolan, Berlin Heights, Ohio.

We cordially invite you to be with us on March fifteenth. We can assure you of the finest offering of Shorthorn cattle in the long history of this event. Our able sale committee insisted on a high standard of excellence, and these leading Ohio breeders have co-operated by consigning from the top of their herds. We all take pride in this offering.

The bulls are a superb group, qualified both in breeding and individuality to be improving herd sires. The females are an exceptionally desirable lot, with pedigrees that cannot be surpassed on paper or otherwise. The entire offering represents the get and service not merely of prospective sires but of bulls that are recognized as producing regularly some of America's best Shorthorns. The cattle are young, sound and healthy, and are guaranteed by breeders of character and reputation. Again, let me say that Ohio Shorthorns are sound and profitable investments.

Marion is easily accessible by rail, motor and air, and has splendid hotel facilities. The show and sale will be held in a comfortable, commodious building. Remember the Kentucky State Sale on Monday, the 17th, at Bowling Green—just a pleasant Sunday drive from Marion.

Should you desire any further information, or if we can assist you in securing reservations, or otherwise, please let us know.

A quick glance at his pedigree will show many outstanding bulls. Klaymor Sunshine appears in the pedigree and she was the top heifer in Jim Russell's sale a few years back. The granddam of this calf produced the champion sale bull at the National sale at Memphis two years ago and the top bull in the Indiana All-bull sale last year. Here is an opportunity to buy an outstanding individual with popular breeding that will breed on. His sire was International Reserve Champion and sold for $5000. A half brother to his sire was the Grand Champion at Denver this year. What more would you want under one hide.

His dam is a full-sister to Leader's Boyne Lady, the reserve champion female at the 1948 International. His sire is Leader's Royal Sultan, the bull we sold in the 1951 International sale.
